INSTRUCTIONS: You will be responsible for setting up your own cooking area, which may include a tent and table. We will provide small tasting cups. People will buy tickets from the Museum to sample your chili. You will also decide whether to make the chili on site or bring it already cooked. At 1:30 pm, our chairman will bring you a bowl to fill with chili for the judging. You may garnish it as you desire. The judges will use weighted scoring based on appearance, texture, and taste receiving the highest score.

ALL applications and payments must be received by October 15, 2018. No refunds for rain-outs or no-shows (refunds will be given for cancellation prior to October 19th).

Food stations will be located by each street lamp near the pavilion on North Railroad Boulevard. All chefs or cooking teams should be completely unloaded and vehicles parked in the parking garage by 8 a.m. You should be prepared to stay until 2 p.m.

For more information, please call or text Barbara Mercier at 601-810-1631.

Checks or money orders should be payable to McComb City RR Depot Museum and mailed with this application to: McComb City RR Depot Museum, c/o Lydia Bellipanni, P. O. Box 7220, McComb, MS 39649.

The undersigned, as well as other associated parties, do hereby and forever discharge the McComb City RR Depot Museum Board, and the City of McComb from all manner of actions, suits, damages or claims for any loss or damage to the undersigned's property while in the possession, supervision, and auspices of the Choo-Choos & Chili at the McComb Depot. I understand and agree to the conditions and requirements set forth in this application.
